TAX CUT BILL PASSES FIRST MAJOR TEST

House Votes To Consider Proposal "As Is" with No Amendments.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26—The Republican-backed $3,840,000,000 tax-cutting bill won its first test today when the house voted to consider this measure on a take-it or leave-it basis.

A voice vote clamped on the no amendment rule.

This action came shortly after President Truman in effect voiced opposition to the measure by citing to newsmen his message to congress in January.

At a treasury news conference, Secretary Snyder also was asked whether he would advise Mr. Truman to veto the bill. Snyder replied:

"I am very positively opposed in these prosperous times to having the government do deficit financing."

Snyder added that "deficit financing is always inflationary" and that if government spending exceeds its income it will have the effect of further lifting prices. He said prices are already "out of line."

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn) opened debate on the bill with declarations that it would (a) ease the burden of little taxpayers, (b) encourage new risk ventures by business and (c) "put the axe to punitive taxes."

The short, bald Minnesotan told his colleagues:

"For years we Republicans have been warning that the short-haired women and long-haired men of alien minds in the administrative branch of the government were trying to wreck the American way of life and install a world oligarchy in Washington through confiscatory taxation.

"This bill is fair, but it is only a start in the right direction. As we clear away the dead wood in the executive branch and restore efficiency in government there will be further tax relief."

The house showdown vote on the bill is set for tomorrow. Speaker Martin (R-Mass), who personally rallied Republican support, confidently predicted victory by a comfortable margin. Republicans outnumber Democrats in the house 245 to 188.

The bill is opposed by many Democrats who have lined up behind President Truman's objectives of no tax cuts at this time. Some Democrats have predicted a presidential veto if the bill is passed.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said the senate likely would revise the house measure. One possibility he mentioned would be a chance to make the reductions effective next July 1. As it stands the bill makes the lowered rates effective as of last Jan. 1.

As senate and house foreign affairs committees delved deeper into the administration's $400,000,000 Greek-Turkey aid program, Senator Brewster (R-Me) urged that the United States obtain commercial air concessions in those two countries as part of the plan.

He said this country has "frittered away" previous opportunities to expand its air traffic and "we should not repeat the mistake this time."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and Communist Leader Eugene Dennis were called before the house committee on un-American activities in its hearings on legislation to outlaw the Communist party. Dennis, the party's secretary, was given two hours to tell his side of the matter with Hoover due to testify later on how the FBI views the matter.

The oft-interrupted senate debate on confirmation of David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the atomic energy commission was due for another delay today. The senate put off resumption of the debate until it disposes of emergency legislation to extend sugar rationing.

BRITAIN'S HIGHEST COURT DISMISSES DEATH APPEAL

Action Apparently Dooms Terrorist to Gallows.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, March 26—The judicial committee of the privy council, Britain's highest tribunal, dismissed today a petition asking leave to appeal from the death sentence imposed on Dov Bela Gruner, a Jew convicted of anti-British violence in Palestine.

The action presumably meant that the sentence—which touched off a wave of widespread actions against the British by the Jewish underground—will be carried out.

Gruner, a 33-year-old veteran of the British army, was sentenced to hang after being convicted by a British military court Jan. 1 of participating in an attack on the Ramat Gan Police station on April 23, 1946.

The supreme court of Palestine previously had dismissed an application for an order preventing the government from executing Gruner, a Hungarian Jew and a member of the underground organization Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Truman Voices Concern Over Price Rising; Asks Cooperation

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26—President Truman expressed concern today over rising prices generally and said he hopes industry will cooperate to reduce them.

The President told the 100th news conference of his administration that he hopes other industries would follow the lines of the International Harvester Company, Ford and others he said have reduced prices.

He said he does not want to see a spiral in prices which might lead to inflation.

Mr. Truman said he hopes costs will not continue to rise.

He hopes, he said, that business will see the handwriting on the wall.

Asked what he meant about the handwriting on the wall, he said that continued price rises would start a spiral of inflation.

Concerned for Some Time

Mr. Truman said he has been concerned about increases for some time and that was the reason he asked for continuance of price controls.

He said that his economic advisory council is now making a complete survey of the situation now.

Asked for comment on negotiations on wages now going forward, the President said he doesn't think the rubber workers contract will cause any inflation.

Mr. Truman steered clear of committing himself on pending legislation to bar portal-to-portal pay suits.

He said he will give his answer on this legislation when it reaches his desk.

Hopes for Early Greek Aid

The President expressed hope that congress will approve his $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program before March 31 — the deadline for British withdrawal of aid to Greece.

He made that comment when asked if he favored a stop-gap loan to Greece.

There has been talk in Congress of making an immediate $100,000,000 loan to Greece since administration officials say that country's situation is serious. This proposal assumes that the President's $400,000,000 program cannot receive action by March 31.

The President also told his weekly news conference that Warren Austin, American representative to the United Nations, would cover the whole Greece-Turkish situation in a speech Friday to the UN council.

A reporter asked whether Austin will present the views of the President.

Mr. Truman replied he didn't like to anticipate the speech, but that it would cover the whole situation.

A reporter finally asked whether Mr. Truman would support a stop-gap loan to Greece if it became apparent there would be unusual delay in acting on his request to congress.

The President replied that he preferred to await events.

Senate Hears Aid Opponents

The senate foreign relations committee, after hearing administration officials argue for the program for two days, began hearing critics of it.

In staccato 10-minute appearances, representatives of several organizations urged that only relief funds be provided for Greece.

RUSS OPPOSE INVITING CHINA

Spurn Allied Proposal That Country Be Admitted to German Conference.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 26—Formal Russian opposition to an American, British and French proposal that China should be one of the inviting powers to a proposed German conference was officially disclosed tonight.

With release of a report from the council of foreign ministers deputies to the Big Four council itself on procedure for preparing the German peace treaty, a wide variety of disagreements became officially evident.

These followed the same pattern of splits heretofore unofficially reported over such issues as the kind of voice that should be given to all nations in treaty making and whether the German government should be compelled to sign the treaty.

Agrees Earlier

Molotov earlier had agreed to Marshall's proposal for a written exchange of information on China, but said the Russian government still believed informal Big Three discussions offered a better means of dealing with the Chinese problem.

"I have no objection to offer to your suggestion," Molotov told Marshall, but he added:

"Such a way of communicating information does not seem to me to be entirely satisfactory."

The Russian foreign minister made known his views in a letter to Marshall. He also presumably communicated his views to British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who called on Marshall at 1 p. m.

LETHAL FUMES BLOCK RESCUE

Company Officials Believe 107 Still Missing Have All Perished.

By The Associated Press

CENTRALIA, Ill., March 26—Amid rapidly dwindling hopes of relatives and officials belief that 122 men had perished, rescue crews struggled against lethal fumes today for possible survivors of a mine explosion in the heart of the southern Illinois coal fields.

Eighteen hours after the blast trapped virtually a complete shift yesterday as it was about to leave work, rescuers, wearing gas masks, were held back by poisonous fumes half way along the three and one-half mile passageway.

Squads of workmen toiled to seal off side entries and improve ventilation.

Of a total of 131 miners trapped, nine were brought out alive, one was brought out dead, and 14 were counted dead at the bottom of the 540-foot shaft.

That left 107 unaccounted for, and the man who did the checking, chief electrician Fred Hellmeyer, said he had no hope of finding them alive.

Not All Hope Abandoned

But not all hope was abandoned, and rescue teams still were trying to get through poisonous gas and fallen timbers to save any who might have survived the fumes.

Walter J. Johnson, general superintendent of the Centralia Coal Co., operator of the mine said that at 7 a. m. about 40 rescue workers were in the mine sealing off all side entries to improve ventilation as soon as possible.

He said the farthest advanced rescue crews were working a mile and a half from the shaft but that progress was slow because it was necessary to check all side entries for possible survivors or bodies before sealing them.

Work in Groups of 20

Trapped miners, Johnson said, were working in groups of about 20 in side entries as far back in the mine as three and a half miles.

Driscoll Scanlan, state mine inspector, said no attempt would be made to remove bodies until complete ventilation had been restored.

If none of the missing men is found alive, this will go into the records as the nation's worst coal mine disaster in nearly 19 years—since 195 were killed at Mather, Pa., May 19, 1928. It would be the worst in Illinois since the Cherry Mine disaster of 1909, which took 259 lives.

The explosion occurred with a rumbling "whoosh" at about 4:30 p. m.—just before the day shift of 131 was about to give way for a night crew. The night men were standing around waiting for their time and for that reason there was no shortage of rescue workers.

Clouds Curl from Shaft

Clouds of thick, milky gray smoke curled out of the shaft and before it faded in the cold wind ambulances, inhalators, doctors and nurses were on the way from a radius of 50 miles and more.

Anxious, grieving families, still holding to a thread of hope as the chill night hours passed with only nine of their men brought out alive, pressed against ropes at the pit head and watched the mercy crews come and go.

The mine is the Centralia Coal Co.'s No. 5, an old one, which has been producing 2,100 tons a day. Unlike many others in this area, it is not unionized; it is in the thick of the populous village of Wamac, a southern suburb of Centralia, besides the Illinois Central railroad [illegible]

Opposition To Bonus Grows

Ohio Overseas Vets Object To Flat $10 Per Month Proposal.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 26—Opposition to a flat $10-a-month service bonus for Ohio war veterans mounted today as legislative sub-committees labored to draft proposals for a vote in the general assembly.

Spokesmen for veterans' organizations said those who served overseas felt they should receive payments of at least $15 a month as originally proposed.

House and senate sub-committees after joint hearings have tentatively agreed to the flat $10 payment for service between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 2, 1945, with a $50 minimum for at least 90 days of active duty.

Legislation Next Week

Rep. Henry W. Deming (R-Licking), chairman of the house military affairs committee, said he expected his sub-committee to submit legislation next week which could be started to the house floor for a vote. He did not

MARION RECOVERING FROM MARCH STORM

But 9 County Schools Closed; 14 Dead in Nation.

Marion was recovering today from yesterday's sudden onslaught of March winter as school attendance rose, roads were cleared, and Marionites took stock of wind damage caused Monday night and early Tuesday.

Nine Marion county schools remained closed by the combination of flu and heavy weather.

In northern Ohio thousands were idled by gas shortage and 1,500 Cleveland motorists were stalled in drifts. Four to nine inches of snow fell in northern counties.

In the nation communications were crippled and 14 deaths reported.

Kenton was digging out today from one of the worst blizzards there in recent years.

Warmer Weather Forecast Thursday

The Marion area, caught off balance yesterday by a sudden return of winter weather, appeared today to be buckling down to another seige of snow, high winds, and cold before spring arrives for certain.

School attendance in the city was up, roads in the county were in better condition, and high winds which caused considerable damage Monday night and Tuesday eased up today.

The weatherman predicted a warm-up tomorrow afternoon, although snow flurries were also said to be on the way.

The mercury dropped to 19 degrees yesterday. At noon today it was 22. About one inch of snow fell during the 24 hours ending today at 8 a. m.

E. E. Holt, Marion superintendent of schools, said 892 students were absent this morning. 15.6 per cent of total enrollment, compared to yesterday's 28.7 per cent.

IRKED SENATOR GETS AIR TIME

O.S.U. Offers Chance To Refute Alleged Lobbying for School Bill.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 26—A senator's assertion that Ohio State university's radio station lobbied for the Daniels-Cramer school bill and misrepresented his own counter-proposal brought offers today of broadcast time over WOSU for a reply.

Sen. Fred G. Reiners (R-Hamilton) made the statement in a senate education committee hearing on a measure he co-sponsored to continue the present school foundation program and appropriate an additional $14,500,000 yearly for cost-of-living bonuses to teachers.

Reiners said he hadn't decided whether to take to the air in reply to a Monday broadcast which he described as "15 minutes of the neatest bit of propaganda I've ever heard over the radio" in favor of the Daniels-Cramer bill.

Increases School Subsidy

That measure would increase the school subsidy from $59,000,000 to $85,000,000 a year. It was recommended for passage by the committee before the bill was introduced in the senate.

Reiners asserted statements by WOSU broadcaster A. W. Elliott about the Hamilton county delegation's counter-proposal were "inaccurate to say the least."

Reiners said Elliott telephoned him yesterday afternoon even before the hearing was over to say that if his remarks were incorrect "I'll give you time to state your side."

Shortly after Reiners' testi-

2 Tidal Waves Hit North N. Z.

Damage 60 Miles of Coast on New Zealand's Upper Island.

By The Associated Press

AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND, March 26—Two huge tidal waves, estimated by some eye-witnesses at 30 feet high, today struck a 60-mile stretch of the east coast of North island, New Zealand, wrecking many buildings and damaging roads and bridges.

The first wave struck the Poverty Bay coast at 8:30 a. m. local time (3:30 p. m. EST, March 25), approximately an hour after the New Zealand observatory reported "a very severe earthquake some miles out to sea."

The second wave rolled into the bay an hour later.

Apart from the town of Gisborne, where some streets became salt water rivers four feet deep, the area affected was populated thinly, mainly by holidayers in summer cottages and some farming families.

Residents along the seashore, warned by the roar of the approaching wall of water, raced to higher land and no drownings were reported.

Gisborne, a town of about 16,000 population, is on the east coast of North island, at the head of Poverty Bay, which is approximately 200 miles southeast of Auckland.

RUSSIA IGNORES SESSION OF UN

Delegates Fail To Show Up at Trusteeship Council Meeting.

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 26 — Soviet Russia ignored the opening session today of the United Nations trusteeship council whose designated mission is to look after the interests of the world's non-self-governing peoples.

The absence of a Soviet delegate did not prevent the council from proceeding with immediate business.

It caused concern, however, among UN officials already worried by what appeared to be a growing trend to by-pass the organization on important problems.

There was no explanation from the Soviet UN delegation headed by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. He refused to make any statement on Russian plans. Some delegates expressed the belief that the naming of a Soviet delegate had merely been delayed and might come through later.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., March 26—A railroad tank car containing 8,000 gallons of deadly liquid chlorine derailed and overturned here today, but none of the fluid spilled or leaked out.

The sheriff's office and state highway patrol stood ready to evacuate approximately 500 residents of the neighborhood in this community of 10,000 inhabitants should the chlorine begin escaping.

The car was one of 31 in a New York Central freight train. Railroad officials blamed the derailment on a burned-out journal.

DAILY LENTEN MEDITATIONS

IN THE CHRIST OF THE CROSS WE GLORY

'The Cross an Experience'

THERE are many theories concerning the cross and its message, its meaning and its purpose. To me it must become an experience—we must see it in our heart as a personal experience A man who forever faces the East and refuses to turn around will never appreciate a beautiful sunset—he must turn to look before its beauty will become an experience. So with the cross, just so long as it is merely a historical event that took place hundreds of years ago just so long it will remain another event in human history with little value to us personally. But let us look upon that cross with the heart, let its glow warm our beings, then it becomes a personal experience.

SOVIETS DEMAND UN HEAR ATOMIC PLAN

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. March 26 — An emphatic Russian demand for immediate consideration of the Soviet plan for harnessing the atom confronted delegates to the United Nations atomic energy commission today.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate and chairman of the commission, put the issue up to the delegates during a closed meeting of the working committee of the commission last night. Gromyko warned that his proposals could not be "by-passed" and said they would have to be considered in attempts to reach agreement.

He added that any moves to pass over his proposals would be resisted.

The committee adjourned until next Monday without a decision on its plan of work. The delegates were expected to confer frequently among themselves befor the next session.

Activities Against Communism Recall Red-Witch Hunt of '20

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, March 26—For months since the war ended feeling in this country against Communism has been building up.

It has grown as Russia's influence in Europe and elsewhere spread. Within within the past two weeks the feeling has turned into open action against Communism at home and abroad.

Take a look:

Secretary of State Schwellenbach said the Communist party in this country should be outlawed. Congressmen introduced bills to do that.

President Truman has asked money for goods and arms for Greece and Turkey to block the spread of Communism in Europe and the Middle East.

Mr. Truman has ordered government employes fired if they are members of the Communist party or organizations sympathetic to the party.

Congress now is up to its neck in the Communist problem.

James Marlow

Considering Outlaw Bills

It is considering bills to outlaw the party here and it's working on aid to Greece and Turkey.

The government action, summed up, says: This is where we make a stand to stop the spread of Communism.

It is the most intensive government action against Communism since the hysterical "red scare" that broke out in 1920, after World War I.

So far, now, what is being done against Communism is peaceful, orderly calm. Not so in 1920.

In that year Attorney General Palmer set out on a flaring anti-Communist crusade. In his book on the 1920's "Only Yesterday," Frederick Lewis Allen says:

"Over 6,000 men were arrested in all, and thrust summarily behind the bars for days or weeks often without any chance to learn what was the explicit charge against them. * * * Ultimately a considerable proportion of the prisoners were released for want of evidence that they were Communists."

Witch-Hunt Widespread

In 1920 the Communists probably had less than 10,000 members and now they probably have less than 100,000. But the red-hunt 27 years ago was widespread. Allen says:

"College graduates were calling for the dismissal of professors suspected of radicalism; schoolteachers were being made to sign oaths of allegiance; businessmen with unorthodox political or economic ideas were learning to hold their tongues if they wanted to hold their jobs. Hysteria had reached its height."

The present moves against Communism by congress and the government are being examined and questioned inside and outside congress.

Questions like these are being asked about aiding Greece and Turkey:

Do we stop there? Or, how far do we go in trying to stop the spread of Communism?

As to the firing from government employ of people who are Communists or are members of organizations sympathetic to Communists:

Government officials, who have to do the weeding out, have given assurances there'll be no "witch-hunt."

Undoubtedly some Communists and fellow-travelers are working for the government and will be fired when found out.

But great care must be taken to prevent injustice to government employes who have innocently become tangled up with organizations they did not suspect of Communist connections.

3 Marionites To Go On Naval Cruises

Three Marion men, students at Ohio State university and enrolled under various training programs in the Naval Officer Reserve Training Corps unit on the campus, are among about 75 students who are scheduled for summer cruises with Annapolis midshipmen starting in June, according to a report received here from the university.

Charles Edward Axthelm and William H. Trafzer are among 35 who will be sophomores this summer and who are slated to embark from the academy at Annapolis June 19 for an eight-weeks cruise which will include visits to ports in Panama, West Indies and Bermuda. One heavy cruiser, one escort carrier and four destroyers constitutes the small carrier task group which is aimed at acquainting the midship with carrier operations and tactics.

Robert L. Taylor is among 20 seniors who will go on a three-weeks cruise in a light cruiser accompanying the carrier task group to the West Indies, Bermuda and Panama.

Auto Market Survey Planned

Dealers Skeptical of Estimated Backlog of 5 Million Orders.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, March 26—The estimated backlog of 5,000,000 unfilled new car orders apparently is beginning to look a little exaggerated to the automobile merchandisers.

To "obtain facts on the situation regarding cancelled as well as unfilled orders," the National Automobile Dealers' association is planning a survey through state and major local car dealer associations. These latter organizations, through questionnaires will in turn seek information from individual dealers.

The surveys will not reach all new car dealers and as a result will miss some bona fide orders; but it should give the best information obtainable concerning how new car business is holding up, particularly with respect to the extent of cancellations and the reasons given for them.

In the exuberance following V-J day a lot of fantastic estimates of accumulated automobile business were given out; some enthusiastic sales executives asserted the industry could not catch up with the demand if it produced at top levels for five years.

Others declared there was an immediate demand for upward of 12,000,000 new passenger automobiles; they reached their total by merely adding up normal production for nearly four years—the wartime period during which no civilian cars were made.

Nobody in the car industry visualizes demand for new vehicles as drying up; but most of the sales chiefs and competent industry observers know that it already has begun to level off.

Aside from price considerations, the probability that the 1948 models, in engineering and styling advances, will be the industry's first postwar competitive cars, undoubtedly has had some part in the levelling off of current demand.

One of the most definite assertions that can be made about the forthcoming models is that a large number of them will present the "flush contour" styling that entirely eliminates rear fenders by spreading the body itself over the wheels.

HOOVER SAYS STALIN CAN END GREEK WOE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 26 — Former President Herbert Hoover says that Marshal Joseph Stalin could give the word that would lift "a large part of that chaos and misery" from which Greece now suffers.

Speaking last night to the Federation of Hellenic Societies of Greater New York at an observance of the 126th anniversary of Greek independence of Turkey, Hoover said:

"America has shown its constant solicitude and has given generously both private and government aid. We propose to continue to do so.

"But a large part of that chaos and misery could be lifted by one man in the world if he be willing. That is Marshal Joseph Stalin.

"It is within his power to stop the aggressive war in the form of guerilla raids from Yugoslavian, Bulgarian and Albanian territory.

"It is within his power to see that the Communist bands in Greece stop killing and abide by constitutional means to express their views.

"That would bring peace to Greece. Then American aid could be devoted to restoring productivity of the Greek people instead of our wasting our generosity on military equipment."

BELL, UNION LOCKED OVER BARGAINING

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26—The far flung Bell telephone system and a federation of 39 unions deadlocked over industry-wide bargaining today as nervous government conciliators eyed the April 7 deadline for a cross country strike.

The policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, an independent amalgamation of unions representing more than 287,000 workers, proceeded with strike plans after these snowballing developments:

1. Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson went to New York to talk over the approaching crisis with officials of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

2. The A. T. and T. officials yesterday referred to the Bell system's various operating companies the NFTW's proposal that a bargaining committee be named to negotiate on a nationwide basis the union's 10 contract demands. These include a $12 weekly pay increase.

3. The union policy committee considered that action to be a rejection of its proposal. It countered by turning down "anything less than systemwide bargaining at this stage of the game." It also rejected the offer of Bell Telephone Co. in Ohio to arbitrate the wage demand, with certain conditions.

4. The union named a three-man committee "to explore all avenues which may now be available or may hereafter be suggested as a means for a reasonable settlement of the 10 national bargaining items."

Federal conciliators were busy in 30 cities, meantime, but up to now their efforts have been unavailing.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

FALSE REPORTS REFUTED

Editor of The Star: For more than 30 years the writer has engaged with other citizens of the community in the solicitation of funds in organized drives for the support of the various character building and service organizations. In every drive the solicitation is made more difficult by erroneous information detrimental to the organizations concerned, being spread by word of mouth by persons of two types—those who are misinformed and those looking for an alibi as an excuse for not subscribing.

The present Red Cross drive is no exception. Solicitors are being met with the accusation that the Red Cross in making emergency loans to soldiers, usually for emergency furloughs due to serious illness or death in the family of the soldier, charged them as much as 8% and then hounded them to death for repayment of the loan. This is utterly false. The charging of interest by the American Red Cross would be in violation of its charter as a non-profit organization, whose first and most important obligation as set forth in its charter is the assistance of persons in the Service and those who have been honorably discharged from the Service, including their dependents.

During more than four years' service during the war just ended, the writer was privileged to serve as a Squadron commanding officer for approximately three years. This service was at an Army Air Force Overseas Replacement depot where all troops received were enroute overseas after an average stay of six weeks. The strength of the Squadrons was from 1,200 to 2,500 men. Among these thousands of men it was natural that many dire emergencies would and did arise, necessitating the return on emergency furlough of the men concerned.

Notice of the emergency usually came in a telegram to the soldier, who at once called upon his commanding officer with a request that he be granted an emergency furlough. When this happened the officer immediately contacted the Red Cross office on the base, giving them the information and asking for confirmation. The Red Cross representative then wired the chapter in the soldier's home town (necessary because of many attempts of conspiracy in an effort to evade service overseas) for confirmation of the emergency, which usually took two to four hours. Upon receipt of confirmation the soldier would be called in by the officer and asked if he had, or could get funds to make the trip. If not, he was sent to Red Cross where a loan application covering the amount necessary to cover the trip was made. The terms of repayment were agreed upon by the soldier and Red Cross representative for the principal only, without interest and usually at a rate of five or ten dollars per month, beginning the following month.

It was the duty and pleasure of this writer to work closely with the Red Cross personnel and hundreds of applications were handled, each of which has to be approved by the officer. In every case the soldier left the Post singing the praises of the Red Cross. Only those men who, in or out of the service, disliked to pay their just debts, condemned the Red Cross. It could not be held out of their pay. No force could be, or was used. The soldier's attention was called to his obligation and it was then largely a matter of the individual soldier's honor. Happily those who did not pay were a mipority. Men who have never had occasion to seek the help of Red Cross have heard the bleatings of these men and innocently repeated it to other soldiers, believing it to be true and not concerned enough to go to a Red Cross representative and get the truth. Practically all of them, the honest and the not so honest, are home now and the spread of such harmful, erroneous information has been accelerated. Ex-service men who know the truth should refute such accusations at every opportunity.

What Would You Seek In Funeral Service?

When Hughes Funeral Service was founded, it was upon the firm and sound belief that trustworthy, personal service with fair dealing would be appreciated by the families of this community. That belief has been justified. Through the years a steadily increasing number of families has been turning to this organization for funeral service. To each we give the same care and personal attention that we would appreciate in like circumstances.

A Notable Band Concert

AMONG spring's brightest spots in Marion's entertainment schedule is the season's annual Harding High school band concert. For that matter, among the community's outstanding brighteners throughout the entire year is this same band, contributing color and music to numerous public assemblies and programs.

The band's value to Marion is recognized and appreciated by everybody in the city, young and old. All have been thrilled and cheered by its performances and all have voiced pride over this being the home city of such an outstanding organization of youthful musicians.

Now and then people of Marion have an opportunity to offer some definite expression of appreciation for this band and its important place in community life. One of those opportunities is set for Thursday night, when the band will appear at the Palace theater for its annual spring concert. People of Marion should fill the theater to its utmost capacity as a tribute to these young people and in recognition of their service to the community, which they have always given freely and generously.

The audience will, of course, be treated to one of the fine programs for which the young musicians are noted, a program in which modern tunes will be featured along with classical selections.

As usual, the band will be under the leadership of its director, Homer Huffman, instructor of instrumental music in the city schools. Needless to say, to Mr. Huffman belongs the major credit for the remarkable degree of proficiency achieved by this Harding High School band and by those which preceded it during his years as instrumental director in the schools here. Under less able and conscientious leadership, Harding High would have had merely another school band instead of one that rates as a band of special distinction and superiority.

So when you join in the applause at the Palace theater Thursday night, it can rightfully be shared alike by the young musicians and their very capable director.

Keep Them Above Ground

REPRESENTATIVE HARTLEY (R) of New Jersey, a member of the house labor committee, is preparing a bill to outlaw the Communist party in the United States. The proposal has the approval of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach and others high in the government but there are some who view it with misgivings, and for good reason. If Representative Hartley's bill becomes law, these difficulties will arise:

The 100,000 Communist party members, who draw their instructions from experts at riding punches, will begin placing new emphasis on infiltration tactics.

Communist party headquarters will change the sign on the door to read "Friends of American Democracy," or some such title. It may even devise stationery with a handclasp motif on the letterhead.

"Independent" candidates will become more frequent on the ballot.

Learned judges and government bureau heads will conduct academic discussions on the topic "What Is a Communist?" until they become as involved and abtruse as the medieval scholastics' argument about how many angels can stand on a needle's point.

Secretary Schwellenbach says of the Communists: "Duplicity, lies and secret methods are their weapons." If this is true, why drive them underground? Better have them an external rather than an internal infection.

Dragon's Teeth

TWO facts stand out in J. Edgar Hoover's report on crime in the nation during 1946. The first is that the arrest total reached a 10-year high of 645,341, and the second is that for the first time since 1938 there were more persons arrested in the 21-year age group than in any other.

"The gradual breakdown of the American home is beginning to be reflected in the national behavior pattern and is a real cause for alarm," said Mr. Hoover.

Juvenile toughs, who learned their way around while under lax parental supervision, or no supervision at all, are coming of age now and are having their first serious brushes with the police. High-paying jobs are not so easily come by as they were during the war, but those who had a taste of the big money are loathe to settle for less now. There is evidence that old gangs are regrouping. Crime increased 7.6 per cent of 1945, only automobile theft showing a decrease among the principal felonies.

Crime prevention and social welfare agencies face a real task in the next few years. The nation is beginning to harvest its wartime crop of dragon's teeth.

The first Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy to conduct divine services for Navy personnel was the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, who officiated in the absence of a chaplain at Easter Sunday services aboard the yacht Nourmahal in 1934 with the crew of the USS Ellis present.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Mallon Analyzes the Position of Socialism.

WASHINGTON, March 26—A happily snoozing editorialist has taken me to the woodshed for suggesting the possibility that a one-party hegemony can establish a dictatorship even in a democracy, while another analyst says the decline of Socialism in Europe indicates the world is coming to its senses the hard way.

Behind these two minor events lies the curtain concealing the whole true current condition of the major nations. The events are linked. The curtain of news in front of them from London, Paris, and Washington can be penetrated by any searching eye. You may see things as they are, not as the politicos pretend them to be. Look:

The Socialists were the only party to lose popular support in the big French election. The registered voters assigned them the position of a minor opposition movement. Yet today they control the premiership of France and the top position in the French government, which they actually formed.

In London the Socialist government blundered from an unpopular rationing of bread to a famine in coal (Britain is the third largest coal producing nation in the world,) an indefensible decline in housing, injury to the Liverpool cotton exchange, corruption of the loan from America and what not. Yet parliament has approved the domination of the country by nearly a 2 to 1 majority for that same Socialist government.

Purpose of Loan

The loan from us was to have been used to equip factories and plants and get England on its economic feet. Less than one-tenth of the loan has been used for equipment. Fewer permanent houses were built in 2 years to replace the bombed out houses than private industry built in 2 months during prewar. The board of trade exported 9 million tons of coal, and kept 5 million, in the year preceding the current winter famine, allowing its normal stocks of coal on hand to drop from 13 million tons (1945 average) down to 7 million tons, nearly in half last fall. These figures show that while the Socialist government is trying to blame its national predicament on the war and the weather, the truth is Britain had sufficient coal stocks (more than normal) on hand at the end of the war, and did not have half-normal stocks to meet the bad weather this year.

To cure this situation the British government has done the opposite of what you would expect. It reduced the underground work-week in the mines to five days of 7½ hours plus one hour winding time. If the miner works only 5 days, this represents a pay increase of 16 per cent. Bonuses will be paid according to the number of days worked. On holidays the miner will draw full pay without work. The increased cost of all this is estimated at $90,000,000 a year, baths to be installed $4,000,000; an increase in welfare levy $3,200,000. The loss of production from no Saturday work requirement would be 18 million tons of coal. The people, the consumers, the citizens at large, have no assurance that these increased costs to them will produce more coal, excepting that the miners promise that now they will work. The inside on that matter is supposed to be (the way the Socialists themselves tell it) that the miners have been taking it easy under government ownership.

Labor Appeasment

As a little Socialism has not worked, the government proposes to try more of it. This is the theory of appeasing the worker into labor. This has never been successfully done anywhere in the world. It is contrary to human nature. The ordinary man will not work unless his circumstances require. Capitalism seeks to bestir his energies for work by offering justice rather than appeasement, an increased reward for increased labor, by furnishing more profits for more successful operations to management and worker, all along the line. This system has worked well. It produces the goods the people need. But that is another and a well known story.

The march of above cited events shows the will of the people, the interests of the consumer, the greater good of the greater number, can be impaired under a democratic form of government. The form has not rendered the substance. The explanation of the British probably is that the Conservative leaders are not well liked, but the effect of it is the disenfranchisement of 10,000,000 British who voted Conservative at the last election. The explanation in France is different. Probably there the Communists want to make democracy itself unpopular by putting at the top of a government they cannot control themselves, the Socialist party which was defeated.

Thus while I have frequently reported Socialism is on the decline in Europe, it is declining only in economic attainments and in French popular votes while its political grasp has been tightened without justification.

Thus I contend the symptoms of a political totalitarism against the interests of the people are already being shown under the guise and form of democracy—and it could happen here if the Republicans merely forget their election promises (they won't.)

A Footnote to the GI Bill?

The Veterans Administration is being urged to provide free chiropodist treatments for former GIs.

That is the most logical suggestion since Johnny came hobbling home.

Incidentally, many a rookie who went marching off to war came back with a limp though he never got within a hundred miles of a port of embarkation.

The guy who made the crack about an Army traveling on its stomach has never been in the infantry.

The modern soldier uses more foot than gun powder.

If they had awarded the Purple Heart for bunions, ours would have been the most decorated Army in history.

That's why free chiropody treatments for veterans is such a splendid idea. Even the brass has corns ... though not necessarily on their feet.

Margaret Truman, White House Soprano

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON, March 26—In making her debut as "Margaret Truman, the new American soprano," Mr. and Mrs. Truman's 23-year-old daughter came off about as well, maybe better, than most young artists taking a crack at their first big chance.

It was much tougher for her than the first time she was shunted into public focus as Margaret Truman, daughter of the President of the United States.

This time it was her voice and her voice alone that people were going to talk about and judge. Her voice is all that counts with Margaret. It is her future. She wants to sing one day with the Metropolitan Opera.

The test of standing behind a mike to sing with the Detroit Symphony before an estimated audience of 15,000,000 radio listeners was all-important.

What critic and taxi driver, housewife and vocalist said about her voice meant more to her than all the reams written about her as a presidential daughter. Her friends say she read accounts of her performance avidly.

Response was fair, even encouraging. The majority of critics, while allowing for brief lapses from pitch, signs of nervousness or other evidence of inexperience and unusual personal strain, commented on the good quality of her voice.

They added that she showed deep appreciation for the value of her songs, that she gave evidence of diligence and ambition. Some even predicted she would eventually fulfill her hope of singing in opera.

Dr. Karl Krueger, director of the Detroit orchestra, said Margaret was a "real trouper" and that he was sure her career would be successful and distinguished.

To Continue Studies

She returned unostentatiously to Washington to spend a few days at the White House. She planned to rest and weigh accounts of the public acceptance of her singing. White House secretaries say they know of no other offers she has to sing in public. As far as they know she will go back to New York to continue her studies.

Hardly anyone at Union Station recognized her. She is not the "pushy" type and finally when a group of photographers drew near her she threw up her hands in mock dismay. Linking her arm through her mother's, she pleaded with them not to take "too many pictures" of her.

That Margaret, out of thousands of other young women harboring the same ambition, got her opportunity to make her debut by radio and received more than $1,000 for it, is undoubtedly due to the fact she is the President's daughter.

Whether she really makes good depends entirely on her talent as a singer. This Margaret knows better than anyone else.

Daughter of piano-playing President Truman, she started her musical career when she was seven.

She began following her father's fingerprints on the family upright back in the land of the "Missouri Waltz."

Unlike a lot of kids that age, she didn't mind practicing. Even the neighbors finally got to like the way she played "do-re-mi" for hours on end—or didn't mind it too much, anyway. When her daddy was a boy he used to get up at 5 o'clock in the morning and practice until 7.

Her Independence, Mo., piano teacher, Mrs. J. C. Storey, had taught Margaret's mother, then Bess Wallace, when she was 14 years old. Margaret took piano lessons until two years ago.

About seven years ago the President's daughter started to study voice. The wife of one of her father's World War I comrades, Mrs. Thomas J. Strickler, was her teacher.

In commenting on Margaret's radio debut the other night, a Washington music critic, Dr. Glenn Dillard Gunn, said:

"Those who remember Mme. Galli-Curci in her prime discovered a resemblance. The Truman voice has the same warmth, the same natural impulse to sing, the same beauty of quality that tugged at the heartstrings of all Americans 25 years ago."

Mrs. Strickler, a plump, motherly-looking woman, says she first noted real talent in Margaret's voice in 1936, when she was 12.

The family was living in Washington then, and Mr. Truman was a senator. Mrs. Truman, Mrs. Strickler and Margaret were driving together from Missouri to Washington and Margaret began to sing "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

Later the music teacher asked Margaret to try "Waters of the Minnetonka," an octave higher. Margaret's voice, she recalled, "scooted up like a little bird." From then on, she said, she had no doubts about the quality of her young pupil's singing.

Mrs. Strickler is of the opinion now that Margaret's voice is well beyond the parlor or church caliber. She describes her voice as being "two notes less than "G" above "high C," which is generally regarded as noteworthy.

Mrs. Strickler says Margaret's voice is the voice of a dramatic soprano potentially fitted for the operatic stage. Following Margaret's Detroit debut, Mrs. Strickler commented: "There was a very beautiful nightingale born down in Missouri. I think she is going places."

Margaret has spent each summer in Independence in order to continue with her voice studies, traveling 10 miles to Kansas City to her teacher's home. In hot weather the lessons were given in the Strickler cottage at Lake Lotawana instead of in town. Twenty-three lessons a month were scheduled for last July, August and September.

Margaret has a piano in her blue-tinted sitting room at the White House. When she's in town "Daddy" Truman plays the accompaniment to her singing while the First Lady quietly beams her pleasure.

The President is no mean hand at the piano. He played some Beethoven for Stalin and Churchill at Potsdam and he is an honorary member of the Philharmonic Symphony Society of New York. He likes the classics, particularly Chopin.

Ample Supply of Pianos

There are other pianos in the executive mansion. Margaret has tried them all. Her father has one in his study. He plays it when his wife and daughter are away. Another instrument is the huge state piano in the East Room. Margaret was delighted at its "beautiful tone" when she first struck its keys.

In February 1945 Margaret, a senior at George Washington university, where her grades were described as "above average," wanted to chuck college and concentrate on singing, her father put his foot down.

Last May she was hailed as the nation's No. 1 girl graduate. She received an AB degree in history. Her father, himself receiving an LLD from the university, handed her her diploma and made the speech of the evening.

During her college days Margaret sang briefly with the University glee club and informally for intimate gatherings of her Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters. At Gunston Hall, from which she previously was graduated, she put in a required hour-a-week with the school choir.

Without any fanfare and no publicity whatever, Margaret up and quit the family circle late last fall in the pursuit of her own happiness and the future about which she dreamed. She went to New York. She took an apartment with her music teacher, Mrs. Strickler, and few people know even now what the address is. She studied diligently.

Newswomen of the capital who meet bi-weekly with the First Lady's secretaries, Miss Reathal Odum and Mrs. James Helm, were more than surprised recently when Miss Odum explained she had some real news to give them.

"Margaret's engaged," one of the women suggested eagerly poising her pencil.

No, Miss Odum answered, but it was "some real good news."

"Should I save it for last?" she asked, like a child hoarding the frosting on her birthday cake.

The news was announcement of Margaret's radio debut. Miss Odum read an appeal which said in part:

"Miss Truman does not want to base her career on the fact that she is the daughter of the President, but wishes to be accepted as a singer on her own merits and in the same manner in which any other aspiring American singer would approach her career."

Previous Offers

Margaret had previously turned down numerous requests to be heard on radio programs and had appeared infrequently and unostentatiously as a musician in public. For years she has been a member of the choir of the Trinity Episcopal church in Independence. In the summer of 1944 had appeared with the Denver Opera Company.

People back in Independence took her choir-singing for granted. After her father became President a reporter asked the Rev. H. B. Whitehead, pastor of the church, if she had sung a solo at the Sunday service.

"We're not making any fuss over her," he said. "She's just a regular member of the choir, as she always has been, and we weren't surprised to see her turn up in her old place this morning."

On special occasions Margaret makes recordings of her voice to give members of the family. She made "Annie Laurie" for her grandmother, Mrs. D. H. Wallace, when she was 84.

When her mother was studying Spanish, Margaret made "Estrellita." Singing the title role, she made a complete recording of "Lucia" for herself. It's one of her favorite operas.

For her father she once made a disc of "Cielito Lindo," Mexican folk song which was featured on her radio program.

"The Last Rose of Summer," which she also sang in her radio debut was a request number—somewhat in the nature of a command performance — from the President of the United States.

Filipino Tribesmen To Read Gospel

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK—The Magumdanao people, residents of Mindanao, P. I., a battleground for American troops both in World War II and the Filipino insurrections following the Spanish American war, will now be able to read the Gospel of St. John in their own language.

The American Bible society has printed 5,000 copies of the gospel and shipped them to Manila. The society reports this is one of 1,060 languages in which all or part of the Bible has been printed.

Daily Bible Thought

Actually there were thousands of believers left, the prophet just assumed he was alone. We never are alone if we are on God's side. —Kings 19:14: "And I, even I alone am left, and they seek my life, to take it away."

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Purification at the Race Tracks

Horse racing has gone in for a code that will seem to equip the tracks with everything but wings, automatic perfuming and character building through atomic energy. The other day the American Thoroughbred Racing association announced new rules which, at first reading, make it harder to get into horse racing than into the D.A.R.

* * *

It requires that everybody having anything to do with the operation of a race track be fingerprinted. This not only applies to owners, trainers, officials and jockeys but to concessionaires and all their employes. This is the first hint that the frankfurter is regarded as a vital influence in horse racing.

* * *

What's the idea? Is there a fear that the hot dog might go wrong? Is the atmosphere of horse racing regarded as such that the cheesecake needs watching? Can oxtail soup influence racing odds? Somewhere, at sometime, has the Hungarian goulash been "fixed?"

Is there a theory that the caterer is not real, the caterer but the late Diamond Jim Brady? Is there a fear that he might leave the track and come back in as a horse in the third race?

There have been some very bad races run of late, so far as we know it has never been charged that the chef, who boils the frankfurters, rooted the losing favorite. We took the whole matter of fingerprinting concessionaires up with one of the big race track caterers yesterday. His only theory was this: the confusion in the record crowds on Saturdays was so great once the season that a horse worked a whole afternoon behind the lunch counter and a waiter went to the post in an event for "four year olds and upwards."

"All I know," he added, "is that in present day racing crowds the strain on a man trying to feed the fans is so great that I personally threw a shoe, developed a spavin and, in the general excitement after a feature race, went down into the winner's circle and had a wreath put around my neck. The fingerprinting is okay with me."

* * *

Other rules for 1947 include one requiring that anybody hearing of an attempt to fix a race report it immediately. Time will be saved by asking the fellow who didn't hear of such an attempt to leave the park.

* * *

Then—don't laugh—there is a solemn declaration that "the public should be protected at race tracks from touts, hawkers of tip sheets and vendors of such sheets, and that "their presence on track property is highly undesirable." Never was a truer word spoken. Nothing gives a more sordid, a lower gambling flavor to horse racing than the hordes of tip sheet sellers bellowing their sure things. The catch in the rule is in the words "on track property." They are kept off most track properties now. And the cops would gladly chase them off away from the entrances on city or railroad property, except that the city and town politicians allot the topsheet privileges and turn the topsters loose, getting a cut on the side.

Giddap, Napoleon! Onward for better racing via the fingerprinted clam-chowder cook and a stern frown on more than one tipsheet hawker to the square inch!

THERE was a wholesale theft of motorcycles in New York the other day. Probably the perpetrator was some fellow with a lot of surplus raccoon tails.

Well, President Truman put up a brave fight to evade the ways of the Florida press agent, but they got him at last. Newspaper pictures all over America now show Harry being handed a cup by a beautiful young lady labeled as the Queen of the 1947 Key West International Fishing Tournament. We might have known it.

In Florida, there is always a glamorous miss who is queen of something. It is the fixed routine from which there can be no departure. Even if they had an elephant hunt down there its spirit would be symbolized by some blond cutie in a sarong.

* * *

The captions say The Queen of the International Fishing Tournament gave the cup to the President for catching a five-pound mackerel. We are surprised that a President of the United States would be linked up with a fish of that size. We thought even a Democrat had more pride. This will cost Harry votes and should be warning to all presidential candidates to flee shy of those Florida queenies of thissa and thatta.

Long Beards Needed

By TRUMAN TWILL

Give a man enough neckties and he will hang himself. Not more than one man in three can be trusted with the necktie problem at all. The proof is about us, in plain sight.

Neckties have been going from bad to worse for hundreds of years. There was nothing to stop them. But now they've hit bottom.

Designers learned early in the game that the only difference between women's hats and men's neckties was that the hats were worn on the head.

Women's hats used to cost more, but that has been fixed during the last few years with the discovery that men will pay a stiff price for a necktie, if convinced it is the only one of its kind.

At the same time it was discovered the same men who froth at the mouth if the little lady wears a hat on the nutty side can be persuaded to wear neckties that would make Dali chartreuse with jealousy.

While this kind of monkey business necessarily was confined to those that could bear the expense, it opened the eyes of all necktie entrepreneurs. What used to be good enough for grandpa to dribble soup on now comes three times higher.

It comes, furthermore, in all designs and colors, the brighter the costlier and the more imaginative the more irresistable—on the same principle as lady's swimming apparel.

The noose has tightened on wearers of neckties, until there is no place left to go. Things are so bad that a man whose necktie does not light up, or spell out I Love You Truly in three shades of pink is suspected of life membership in the right wing of the G.O.P.

The gents have been knocking themselves out so feverishly with the garishness of their ties that their idea of a sedate number suitable for a funeral or the bedside of an aged relation is something in which the figure of the ladies, animals and poultry are too small to make out at 100 yards.

The dash hounds are getting to the end of their four-in-hands—and there isn't much that can do with the bows, unless they take up the senatorial, or violinist, version—to give them more room. Perhaps the possibility shouldn't be mentioned. Desperate men will grasp at anything, even bow ties.

What America needs is an era of long graybeards to give the necktie industry a chance to catch its breath after the wildest spree in history.

Farming has been traced as far back as 700 B. C. in Egypt.

Priceless Marble Busts

...olarium had priceless ... busts from Italy and fan... backed chairs from Haiti. Its gold-leafed doors came from an old Astor house in Manhattan.

The teakwood floors were put together with pegs. The Louis XV furniture in the ballroom was upholstered in red cut velvet. The ceiling of the great living hall—large enough for a wild animal act—was timbered with huge cypress beams. Windows of untextured handblown venetian glass tempered the glare of the sun.

Six gondolas were anchored in the bay at all times, available to guests.

The dining room had two priceless Titian paintings and a solid walnut table seating 42 people. The bar in the next room came from the celebrated old Waldorf hotel in New York. It had a musical bottle that tinkled—"How Dry I Am."

1,000 Rare Art Volumes

In his library Ringling had 1,000 rare art volumes. In his bathroom he had his own private barber chair and a bathtub made from one chunk of pure sienna marble. The faucet was of solid gold. It leaked.

The furniture of his bedroom had been made originally for Napoleon III of France. One wall held a large canvas of Pauline Bonaparte, sister of the first Napoleon, wearing a gauzy veil that displayed more of her body than her stumpy little brother would have approved.

Mrs. Ringling's bedroom was furnished with Louis XV rosewood delicacy.

The house was opened just before Christmas 1926. Her expansive husband had built her a museum as much as a home, but Mabel Ringling made it her own in a woman's way. She sewed her own lampshades and bedcovers. Her handiwork helped give it a "lived-in" flavor.

"Lovable Woman"

"She was a lovable, democratic, well-liked woman," said one who knew her.

But in 1929—less than three years after the mansion was completed—she died. From then on John Ringling had little pleasure in his palace by the bay. He died in 1936 and willed it to the state of Florida.

It was closed for years. Fifteen thousand sightseers tried to get in to view it when it was opened to the public last Dec. 15. Now 300 to 400 tourists come daily to gawk at the gold faucet and put their feet on the old Waldorf bar rail.

Dark-eyed sweet-faced Mabel Ringling looks down at them from one portrait. Big tall John Ringling, his hand thrust imperiously into his pocket, stares down from another wall.

Proud of this portrait, Ringling once showed it to Will Rogers.

"Don't look natural," said Rogers critically.

"Why?" asked the crestfallen circus magnate.

"Cause you've got your hand in your own pocket," laughed Will.

Ulcers of Stomach

Most ulcers of the stomach or first part of the intestine can be treated successfully without operation. In fact, according to Dr. Edward A. Cooney of Boston, about eight out of ten are of this type. In the remaining cases, however, complications arise which demand surgical treatment, if life is to be saved.

Among such complications are perforation, obstruction, severe hemorrhage and recurrent bleeding. Then, too, there are many who believe that an ulcer, when present for a long time, may be a factor in the development of cancer.

Ulcers cause such symptoms as pain in the abdomen, sickness to the stomach and vomiting. The pain of ulcer usually comes on within one to three hours after eating and may be relieved by taking milk or some alkaline substance such as baking soda.

But, when an ulcer perforates or eats through the wall of the stomach, the pain is extreme, striking suddenly and seeming to center in the pit of the stomach. The muscles of the wall of the abdomen become rigid and hard.

This is a grave emergency and one requiring immediate operation in every case where the patient is in good enough condition to withstand it. The longer operation is delayed, the greater is the danger for the patient.

Before the operation is carried out, it is advisable that the patient be given an injection of sulfadiazine in solution into a vein. For the first few days after operation, it is also suggested that the patient be given an injection into a vein of some amino acid preparation to supply him with material for building tissues. Amino acids are the substances which make up the protein parts of food and which are needed for building body tissues. Vitamins C and B-complex are also given in the same way.

When a large amount of bleeding from an ulcer occurs, an attempt should be made to control the emergency situation by giving injections of whole blood into a vein. Later on, after these transfusions have made the patient's condition better, an operation for removal of part of the stomach may be carried out.

Blocking of the opening from the stomach to the intestine in ulcer cases is due to the fact that scar tissue has formed which contracts and narrows the outlet from the stomach. If this obstruction cannot be relieved by medical treatment within a period of ten days, operation to correct the condition is required.

An individual with an ulcer should, of course, be under the care of his physician so that it can be carefully checked from time to time. If danger of any of the complications mentioned occurs, it may be rapidly detected and the proper surgical measures employed.

HELD AS BANDIT. Camera-shy Francine Williamson, 21, hides from camera as she is questioned by New York police on charges of assault and battery. The girl, according to police, lured men to darkened hallways along Times Square, where, with 10-inch knife and empty gun she and her 19-year-old brother robbed their victims. Girl is on parole after serving sentence as a wayward minor.

Building Cost Rise Figured Since '39

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 26—Compared with 1939 averages, building construction costs—including material and labor—had, by December, 1946, increased in a range from 38.1 per cent to as high as 93.6 per cent for various types of structures erected in various sections of the nation, says the Architectural Record.

The highest increase noted in the report, prepared by Clyde Shute, manager of the statistical and research division of the F. W. Dodge Corporation, was noted in Atlanta. There, it said, the cost of building wooden frame residences was 93.6 per cent more last December than was the cost for similar buildings erected during 1939.

The lowest increase was reported in San Francisco, where it cost 38.1 per cent more last December to build brick and concrete factory buildings than such construction cost in 1939.

The following table shows Shute's finding of percentage increases:

City	Small Brick	Dwellings Frame
New York	55.9	56.7
Atlanta	84.3	93.6
St. Louis	62.4	68.0
San Francisco	60.6	68.0

International Harvester Company
Dealer Price Reduction Advertisement, March, 1947
(2481)

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER says:
"Any price is too high if it can be reduced."
INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER
We second the motion
We'll do our part!

International Harvester has reduced prices to save users of its products $20,000,000 a year. The reductions apply to a selected list of various products made by the Company.

In making its announcement to the general public last week, International Harvester said:

"We believe there is nothing more important to this country than to lower the prices of goods people buy.

"The American people have insisted that the government withdraw from its attempts to control prices in peacetime. That places the responsibility where it belongs—in the hands of business and industry.

"Because we believe price reduction is vital, we are willing to assume the risks involved."

As International Dealers we will do our part. We will pass International Harvester's price reductions to our customers.

And now a word of gratitude to our friends who have patiently waited for the new machines they need. As most of our customers are aware, International Harvester has done everything possible—and some things that seemed impossible—to maintain and increase production.

The outlook is somewhat better. Soon we hope to supply equipment to all of those who have cooperated so faithfully with us.

Meanwhile, the same top-quality International Service and Parts that have kept equipment operating for our customers during the difficult years are available from us. We urge our friends to continue to use these facilities to obtain maximum operating economy.

International Harvester is doing its part with quality, increased production and reduced prices.

We will do our part in this territory

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?
So, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from its nervous distress. It works this way: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a moody, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.
To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. Its is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.
Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up nonorganic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.
Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and pep. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

C. AND O. TO TAKE CAR BIDS

April 17 Date for Estimates on 3,000 Hoppers Set.

Special to The Star

NEW YORK, March 26—Inquiries for bids on 3,000 70-ton all-steel hopper coal cars to meet anticipated increases in coal traffic on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway were authorized today by the road's directors, meeting in New York.

Bids will be received April 17 and, to expedite construction and delivery, will be based on the builders' own specifications rather than those of the buyer.

The C. and O. placed orders for 2,000 other freight cars previously this year. One contract for 1,000 50-ton lightweight all-steel box cars was awarded to the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing Co., and another, for 1,000 70-ton steel hopper coal cars equipped with Timken roller bearings, to General American Transportation Corp. of Chicago.

Hopper cars in which bids will be received next month will be of the friction bearing type because a number of them probably will be used in off-line service.

Until such time as other railroads buy roller bearing cars and provide proper maintenance of them, the Chesapeake and Ohio's equipment of this type will be confined largely to on-line operations.

The C. and O., one of the largest originating carriers of bituminous coal, now serves 292 mines along its lines, and presently is extending its lines to two new coal fields—one in Wise county, Virginia, and another in Letcher county, Kentucky. These areas are expected to increase C. and O. tonnages materially.

Girl, 14, May Take Stand In Own Murder Defense

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, March 26—Whether Mary Catherine Reardon will take the stand in her own defense on a charge of delinquency by reason of murder in the death of her father was still undecided as the trial of the 14-year-old defendant entered its third day today.

The jury heard three witnesses tell of oral admissions the girl made to shooting her father, J. Vincent Reardon, prominent St. Louis businessman, as he was driving Mary and her boy friend, 13-year-old Michael D'Arcy, home from a tourist camp where the youngsters had spent the night. The shot caused Reardon to lose control of the car and he and the boy were killed in the resultant crash.

The plump young defendant, large for her age, sat impassively through most of yesterday's testimony. During recesses she smiled and chatted with her attorneys.

OPA MAY KILL MINOR CONTROL VIOLATIONS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26 — The OPA may toss out nearly 8,000 "minor" price control cases to speed up prosecution of suits against "flagrant violators and black market operators" involving more than $75,000,000 in possible damages.

William E. Remy, deputy OPA commissioner for enforcement, told reporters congress will be asked for informal approval of the plan which he said calls for:

1. An intensive drive to wind up prosecution of about 800 criminal case, 1,872 cases involving overcharges in which damages totaling $65,913,000 are claimed, and about 2,600 cases involving violation of meat controls which have held up payment of more than $11,500,000 in government subsidy payments.

2. Granting amnesty to about 7,803 defendants in "minor" cases, including those accused of making overcharges totaling up to $3,000.

All these 13,075 pending cases involve reported violations of OPA regulations governing commodities and services on which controls were ended last November. They do not include "several thousand" involving rent, sugar and rice controls.

Remy said: "Even if we don't get congressional approval, we'll have to go ahead and drop some of the cases, for we don't have the staff nor the money to continue them. We have the right to knock them out in the public interest, but we'd like congress to approve it."

A general amnesty bill covering all violations involving decontrolled commodities and services has been introduced in the house.

MOOSE LODGE ACCEPTS TEN APPLICATIONS

Plans Made for Initiation and Banquet April 27.

Ten applications for membership were accepted when the Marion Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, met Monday night in the Moose hall on South State street.

Plans were made for a final initiation and banquet to be held April 27 as a climax to the current membership drive. All candidates received during the drive and all lodge members who obtained at least one application will be invited. The degree team of the Delaware lodge will be guests.

The lodge softball committee reported on a meeting which it attended in Bucyrus March 19, at which preliminary plans were made for the lodge district softball tournament. Another meeting will be held in Mansfield in the near future to draw up final plans for the tournament. The Moose softball team also plans to enter the city league again this year.

The local chapter of the Legion of the Moose will meet April 9 in the Moose hall and on April 20 will attend a district meeting in Sandusky.

Wesley Cook, a charter member of the lodge was honored on his seventy-first birthday when he was presented a birthday cake by Lodge Governor Donald Phelps, and he was voted a life membership.

It was announced that the euchre game between the lodge and the Eagles lodge has been postponed from Thursday night until April 3.

The ticket sale for the Mills Brothers circus, to appear on the Campbell lot at the north edge of the city April 24, was reported well underway. The circus is being sponsored by the lodge.

Army Not To Ask For Dam Funds Next Year

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26 — Army engineers will not request money to commence building Dillon dam on the Licking river in Ohio next year, Rep. McGregor (R-Ohio) said today.

The congressman said that General Wheeler, chief of engineers, had told him they "have some money to run through June this year, but they won't ask for any for the fiscal year starting July 1."

The flood control dam, to be located on the borders of Licking and Muskingum counties, has been opposed by some congressmen and by groups of local citizens, McGregor said, adding that opponents favor a system of smaller dams on Licking tributaries rather than one big dam at Dillon.

The delay, he said, could make it possible "for us to straighten out' 'the dispute.

SENATE GROUP O.K.'S NEW SUCCESSION BILL

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26—The senate rules committee today approved legislation placing house Speaker Joseph Martin, Massachusetts Republican, first in line for succession to the presidency.

The vote was 6 to 5, with the committee dividing along party lines.

Republicans supported the proposal. Democrats voted no.

President Truman recommended more than a year ago that the speaker of the house be next in line after the vice president. Under present law, Secretary of State George C. Marshall would take the presidency in the event of the incapacity of Mr. Truman.

Chairman Brooks (R-Ill) of the rules committee told reporters the committee approved a bill by Senator Wherry (R-Neb) which would set up this new succession sequence:

1. Vice president.
2. Speaker of the house.
3. Presiding officer of the senate. (Should the speaker fail to qualify).
4. Secretary of state and on down through the cabinet.

Because the office of the vice president is vacant, Martin would be first in line under President Truman.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), the senate's presiding officer, would be second and Marshall third.

Brooks said the Wherry bill sets up "almost the identical" succession urged by President Truman," except it does not provide for a special election.

OHIO SCHOOL STRIKE ENTERS SECOND WEEK

Conciliators Optimistic Over Possible Dispute Settlement.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, March 26 — A strike of some 500 students of North College Hill junior and senior high school entered its second week today as an optimistic citizens' arbitration board scheduled another mediation session in an effort to get the boys and girls back in the classrooms.

The pupils refused to enter the schools last Wednesday morning in protest against refusal of a majority of the suburban community's board of education to rehire Dr. William A. Cook as superintendent of schools.

The 10-member arbitration board—with two factions in the superintendency controversy having equal representation—held a four-hour, closed session last night, and as the meeting broke up Howard Wirtz, the conciliator, reported "some progress."

Wirtz said the arbitrators expected "to arrive at a solution" at another session tonight.

called on members of the United Nations today to resort to the UN on all international problems "even when the most vital national interests are at stake."

Lie's appeal was made at the opening session of the UN trusteeship council in his first public address since before President Truman declared that the UN was unable to extend emergency help of the kind required by Greece and Turkey and asked congress for $400,000,000 aid to those countries.

Without referring directly to the Greek-Turkish situation, Lie asserted that "the bed-rock on which alone the United Nations can build solidly and securely for the future" is a readiness of members to resort to the UN and to live up to the "solemn principles and purposes of the United Nations."

On another phase, Lie said the Palestine problem probably would come before the United Nations at an early date.

TRUMAN

Friendship, characterized President Truman's proposal as "a tacit declaration of political and economic war upon the Soviet Union."

Voices Tax Cut Opposition

Mr. Truman in effect voiced opposition to the $3,840,000,000 Republican tax cut bill by citing his budget message to congress in January.

Asked for comment on the Republican drive to reduce taxes, Mr. Truman said his position was stated in his January message.

He then said "I cannot recommend tax reduction" and added the opinion that at present "high taxes contribute to the welfare and security of the country."

Scores Cutting Off Salaries

He also declared he did not like the practice of dismissing a federal official or later by cutting off funds for his salary.

The President made that comment in response to questions about congressional moves to bar salary appropriations for conciliation service director Edgar L. Warren and his top aides.

Asked if he considered this proper procedure, Mr. Truman said that while he was a member of congress he did not like the practice generally. He promised to discuss the measure eliminating Warren's salary when it reaches his desk, but he agreed with one reporter that a veto of one appropriation bill could not restore the salary of any official.

Mystery of Recluse's Whereabouts Grows

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 26—The mystery of Langley Collyer's whereabouts grew deeper today as searchers began a third day of rummaging through his junk-filled house without having found a trace of the 61-year-old recluse.

"We are going to continue the search until we are sure Langley Collyer is not in there, dead or alive," said Police Inspector Joseph Goldstein.

The missing persons department has begun a check of boarding houses to which Collyer might have moved after the death of his blind brother, Homer Collyer, 65, whose body was found in the house last Friday. The brothers had lived in the three-story and basement brownstone house since 1909, when the upper Fifth avenue section was fashionable. Langley Collyer last was seen Thursday.

OHIO SUPREME COURT RULES ON PAROLE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 26—Because Donald William Burson now is serving time in the state penitentiary for a criminal offense, committed while he was fighting a charge of parole violation from the state reformatory at Mansfield, the Ohio supreme court today dismissed an appeal by the reformatory authorities from a Richland county appellate court decision freeing him of the parole violation charge. The supreme court held the matter of imprisonment in the reformatory was mooted by his confinement in the penitentiary.

Burson originally had been convicted in the Stark county courts of operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent and was placed on probation. During his probationary period he enlisted in the army and served three years. After his return, he was arrested for parole violation because he never had reported to parole officers. While fighting imprisonment in the reformatory he was convicted of another offense and sent to the penitentiary where he now is confined.

By refusing a review the supreme court upheld the Ross county appellate court in finding that the estate of Byron V. Brown, who was killed at a grade crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad when his automobile was struck by a train, had no cause for damages against the railroad. A common pleas court had awarded the estate $5,000 damages from the railroad, but the appellate court reversed and rendered final judgment for the railroad.

indicate whether the $10 monthly payment would be included.

It has been agreed tentatively that payments should be in cash to personnel with the rank of captain and below who lived in the state at least a year prior to service. Immediate relatives of service dead would get $500 payments under the agreement.

The problem of financing the bonus, estimated to cost nearly $400,000,000, was undecided.

Receive Numerous Protests

Senators said they had received numerous protests against a flat bonus without regard for overseas service and many veterans are registering opposition to any bonus because of its cost.

Representatives acted yesterday to improve the standards of police and fire departments by passing a bill fixing age limits for new members of those services.

The senate passed a bill to set up educational standards for embalmers and funeral directors, make permanent the soldier voting law, and place public utilities commission examiners under civil service.

Sen. D. A. Liggitt (R-Logan) introduced a measure to name route 42 the 42nd Ranger division memorial highway.

Ambassador to Slavs Not Returning to Post

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26 — President Truman said today that Ambassador Richard C. Patterson is not returning to his post in Yugoslavia.

Mr. Truman gave no further explanation.

The Patterson disclosure came after Arthur Bliss Lane's resignation as ambassador to Poland so that he can "speak and write openly" of what he saw in that Soviet-dominated country.

Patterson has given a series of lectures on conditions in Yugoslavia which have been criticized in the Yugoslav press.

Market Proprietor Overcome by Fumes

Anthony Nicolosi of 464 Summit street, owner of the Modern Food Market on South Main street, was overcome by gas about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at his market while trying to plug up a flue opening from which gas fumes were escaping from an adjoining business building. He was admitted to City hospital and placed under an oxygen tent. He was released from City hospital this morning and returned to work. When he failed to respond to inhalator treatment applied by city firemen he was removed to the hospital.

closed yesterday opened today and others which had remained open closed. Nine were closed today. Closings were attributed both to flu and bad weather.

County schools closed today were Prospect, Campbell, Caledonia, Green Camp, LaRue, Meeker, Morral, New Bloomington and Prospect. Kirkpatrick stayed open, with 32 per cent absentees and Marion struggled along with 17.8 per cent missing.

The county engineer's office said county roads were clear and no plows had been sent out today. State roads were reported slippery in spots and drifting in places, but no accidents were reported to the state patrol.

Near 561 North State street, a heavy branch was blown from a tree yesterday afternoon and dented the cab of a parked truck. The driver, Clinton Rousch of 958 Bryant street was not in the truck.

Further reports of wind damage Monday night and early Tuesday included a broken show window at the W. T. Grant Co. store at West Center and South Prospect streets and damaged roofs and broken windows in warehouses at Marion Engineer Depot.

Inter-city buses still were running late, but trains were reported to be running on time.

WINTER GRIPS MOST OF EASTERN U. S.

By The Associated Press

Winter weather, with snowfalls measuring 16 inches, winds of near gale velocity and below freezing temperatures, held a firm grip from the eastern Rockies to the Atlantic seaboard and south into the Carolinas and Tennessee today.

The damaging wind and snow storm that struck the lower Great Lakes region Tuesday and spread into the eastern states continued for the New England states today.

The post-winter storm caused at least 14 deaths, curtailed all forms of transportation, crippled communications and closed many schools and factories in several midwest and eastern states.

Federal forecasters in Chicago predicted a "slow" warming up in the midwest starting tomorrow.

Temperatures dipped to as low as 12 above in North Dakota and Michigan and generally were far below freezing throughout the storm belt.

Snow flurries also occurred as far south as Nashville, Tenn., and Asheville, N. C.

UNPREDICTABLE MARCH GRIPS OHIO BY THROAT

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 26 — Unpredictable March still gripped Ohio by the throat today.

Four to nine inches of snow quilted northern counties, high winds howled and only minimum traffic crawled across the state's snow-drifted and slippery highways.

Seven to eight thousand workers were idled in Canton, where the supply of industrial gas was cut off. Industrial gas was cut to 25 per cent in Youngstown, and in East Liverpool the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. placed industrial gas use on a maintenance only basis.

The Toledo gas supply was slashed 50 per cent, but there were no layoffs.

In Cleveland, where the spring storm's Sunday punch landed, the automobile club reported 1,500 motorists still stalled in snowdrifts. The club said it was 2,000 calls behind.

Airport Operator Thomas Carroll estimated damage at $5,500 from a gust of wind which wrecked four planes at Swaney airport, East Liverpool.

State Highway Director Murray D. Shaffer said many highways north and east of Norwalk, Bucyrus, Wooster and Youngstown were blocked by snow.

Greyhound cancelled its intercity bus service out of Cleveland and said its vehicles were stacked up at Elyria, Lorain and Medina.

Kenton Digs Out After Blizzard

Special to The Star

KENTON, March 26—This city was digging out from its worst storm in recent years, after being struck by a blinding, four-hour snowfall yesterday evening.

Several hundred motorists were marooned downtown at the height of the storm when it became impossible to see across the street.

Local hotels filled up and at least 50 out-of-towners were found places to stay by hotel managements.

Hardin county roads were reported passable today, but all county schools closed. Kenton High school and Hardin Central school in Kenton also were closed.

The power and communication situation in Hardin county still was bad today when the blizzard hindered repair crews yesterday. The situation in Kenton was improved, however, and only traffic lights were reported out.

Schools Reopened In Wyandot County

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., March 26 — Upper Sandusky and Wyandot county schools reopened today after being closed yesterday by icy and drifted roads. State and county highway crews worked late Tuesday to clear the drifts and remove the wind tossed trees and branches from the roads.

Telephone linemen found the wind and ice had broken the lines to a hundred rural subscribers in the county and four lines were out for a short time yesterday in Upper Sandusky. Many cars and trucks were towed from drifts and ditches.

DAYTONIAN KILLED IN CINCINNATI GUN FRAY

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, March 26 — A Dayton man was killed and two detectives wounded in a gun battle following a weekend cafe holdup early today, Detective Harry O. Jones reported.

Lemuel J. Rose, 37, of Dayton, was shot to death and Detectives Miner Stone, 32, and Matthew Melgon, 36, were wounded, Jones said. Stone was wounded in the left side and Melgon in the elbow.

The detectives surprised Rose and George Strange, 42, of Dayton counting money in a second-floor apartment two blocks from Tony's cafe on Spring Grove Ave., where a hold-up occurred shortly before, Jones reported.

Instead of surrendering, the men began shooting, Jones said. Strange, unhurt in the gun battle, was captured by the wounded detectives.

Jones was unable to estimate the amount of money taken in the cafe holdup.

Acting Chief of Detectives Patrick Hayes said Strange later had confessed participating in the holdup.

Strange named Rose, whose residence was given as Dayton, O., and William Thomas Bell, 47, of Hamilton, O., as his companions in the robbery, which police said netted the gang nearly $1,000.

Strange is a former inmate of the Lima state hospital for criminal insane.

2 MORE SCHOOLS CLOSED IN CRAWFORD COUNTY

Mt. Zion and North Robinson Suspend Due to Illness.

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, March 26 — Two more Crawford county rural schools, at North Robinson and Mt. Zion, were closed today due to the widespread illness which had cut deeply into the attendance Monday.

At Mt. Zion school 66 students were absent, or about 29 per cent, when classes convened Monday. Illness also made it advisable to postpone the Future Farmers and Future Home Makers banquet scheduled for Wednesday and the spring musical scheduled for Friday night.

North Robinson had 44 pupils and two teachers absent when school convened Monday.

Tiro continued to remain closed but not due to illness. A breakdown in the water system caused the classes to be dismissed a week ago.

In Bucyrus city schools absentees increased, including four teachers. The percentages of absentees reached 17.4 per cent, an increase of three per cent over Friday.

Brown Calls A-Bomb Margin of Victory

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 26—Expressing doubt that Russia does not already have the atom bomb, Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Blanchester said in an address to the Springfield Chamber of Commerce yesterday it would be the margin of victory in a war between the United States and the Soviet Republic.

Russia, said Brown, now has "950,000 perfectly equipped troops" within a 24-day march of the English channel, but America has but 180,000 first-class troops in all of Europe.

Brown advised the U. S. to be "careful" to watch the progress at home before pondering too much "the spread of Communism" through other countries.

5 CARS AND 2 TRUCKS IN FREAK ACCIDENT

Crash in Storm; Traffic Tied Up Two Hours.

Poor visibility and slippery roads caused a freak accident involving five cars and two trucks three and one-half miles north of Delaware on route 23 at 5:30 p. m. yesterday.

Three of the cars and a wrecker towing a trailer had stopped because of a climbing snow flurry and a truck trailer following rammed the rear of one car setting off a chain of collisions. Two more cars tried to stop to avoid the accident and were involved in one of their own.

The tangle that resulted from the accident caused traffic on the highway to be tied up for approximately two and one half hours according to a report from the Delaware county sheriff's office.

Drivers of the vehicles involved in the ramming were Edgar P. Schisler of near Delaware driving a state owned car, Harry Hoffine of Delaware, Paul P. Owens of Franklin county, James F. Blessing of Columbus, driver of the wrecker which is owned by the Commercial Motor Freight Co. Columbus, and Edward H. Gentry of Charlotte, N. C., who was driving a semi-trailer owned by W. E. Moore of Charlotte.

The semi-trailer hit the Schisler car to start the chain. The Schisler car was damaged considerably and the driver suffered cuts and bruises. Walter Sullivan and Carl Davidson of Delaware, passengers in the Hoffine car, suffered bruises and shock. Damage to the car was considerable.

There were no other injuries and damage to the other machines was slight.

Cars driven by Dr. W. J. Talbott of Bucyrus and Robert Brown of Delaware slid into one another in attempting to stop.

The wrecker had been towing a trailer back to Columbus that overturned in an accident the previous morning.

more Dr. A. B. Sias of Ohio university's college of education at Athens told the committee he has been talking to prospects right along about the Daniels-Cramer bill with the idea it's going to pass."

"May Not Get Students"

"If it doesn't we may not get them," he added in emphasizing the current need for teacher training students.

He reported the average annual salary of Athens county teachers was $1,600 and estimated they would get "in excess of $500 each" additional under the Daniels-Cramer bill.

Walton B. Bliss Ohio Education association lobbyist who has campaigned for the Daniels-Cramer bill, termed the substitute proposal a "snare and a delusion" to Ohio teachers.

Major objections to the measure were that it would provide only temporary relief, that it did not include pay boosts for other school employes, that would not raise educational standards, and that it would not help pay increased costs of needed school supplies.

GHOST WALKS NIGHTLY

Crew Sees Eerie Light Over Stern of Towed Vessel.

By The Associated Press

HONOLULU, March 26—An unexplained eerie light appears nightly aboard the deserted stern section of the tanker Port Dearborn, which broke in half at sea March 12.

The captain of the navy tug Lipan, which is towing the section toward Pearl Harbor, reported the Hawaiian sea frontier yesterday.

"Suggest ship be searched on arrival (Sunday)," as light observed every night when appears be lantern. There is no one aboard to my knowledge. Have inspected for water tightness and all compartments were dark and all ports closed. Two ports are open this morning."

Twenty-two men were rescued from the stern and 10 from the bow section. Twelve men are reported to have leaped overboard in terror immediately after the tankers bow tore off in heavy seas, are missing and presumed drowned.

NEW ORLEANS FEELS MILK STRIKE PINCH

NEW ORLEANS, March 26 — New Orleans began to feel the pinch of a dairymen's strike today as armed farmers sought to choke off the city's supply of milk from the Florida parishes by seizing train and truck shipments.

Already many thousands of gallons had been spilled by strikers, who set up roadway blocks to prevent motor deliveries and forced the conductor of an Illinois Central passenger train to sidetrack a tank car so that the contents could be dumped.

"We expect this thing to last about three weeks," said Glen Henery, financial secretary of the Amite local union No. 22 of the Dairy Farmers.

Henery said union members thought a few trucks might try to get through, and declared that all roads into New Orleans were being guarded.

New Orleans distributors said the blockade had cut off about half the normal milk supply of the south's largest city. The Florida parishes—the section of Louisiana which lies east of the Mississippi river—have been producing about 58 per cent of the state's milk supply.

A spokesman for one New Orleans dairy declared his firm would "serve people even if we have to go out of the state to do it."

The strike began Monday night after distributors served notice that they planned to cut the price paid for milk with four per cent butterfat from $5.75 per hundredweight to $5.

Lee Carter representative for the Teamsters International Union (AFL) said that the strike was costing farmers $20,000 a day, but that the cost to distributors was "at least $5,000 to $10,000 a day more than that."

The embryo outfit's records and the armory were inspected during the afternoon by a Major Sykes and a Master Sergeant Stackhouse, from Second Army headquarters at Fort Hayes, Columbus.

MARKET OVERCOMES SLIGHT STUMBLE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 26—The stock market reached hesitantly for recovery today after a minor stumble.

Industrials engaged in a slow improvement which eliminated many early losses. Although the pace quickened somewhat, demand never became urgent. Gains of fractions to more than a point predominated near the fourth hour.

Prominent gainers included Bethlehem, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, General Motors, American Telephone, Baltimore and Ohio, Southern Railway, Electric Power and Light, Kennecott, American Smelting, Air Reduction, Dow Chemical and Fajardo Sugar. Pullman climbed after announcement of a proposal to purchase and retire capital stock. Earnings and dividend reports boosted Schenley and Gilette Safety Razor. Lagging were Santa Fe, Allied Chemical, International Harvester and Union Carbide.

The other ships are the General Callan, due at New York with 1,809 troops, 33 war brides, 40 dependents and seven civilians from Bremerhaven, and the General R. W. Blatchford, due at San Francisco with 1,357 troops and eight civilians from Japan.

No troop ships arrived yesterday.

CHINA

at the U. S. embassy, where they conferred briefly.

The subject of this talk was not disclosed, but it was believed to deal with the China question. The Molotov letter was delivered last night.

The proposal that the Chinese situation be taken up during the present conference in Moscow was broached by Molotov at the very outset of the foreign ministers' meetings.

Marshall's position was that he could not consent to a discussion of Chinese problems unless representatives of China were invited to sit in on the talks—a position with which Molotov did not agree. Marshall then proposed that the ministers exchange written information by April 1, making copies available to the Chinese government.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union were reported authoritatively today to be considering important concessions in their demands on Germany so as to accomplish their major aims for a German peace settlement in the council of foreign ministers.

Officials were doubtful any deals were in prospect of sufficient import to produce major agreement during the current Moscow sessions.

All indications are the United States is willing to agree to some form of reparations from current German production to continue for several years, provided it can be arranged without further cost to the American taxpayer.

Continuing reparations are believed to be a principal aim of the Soviet Union, and western diplomats believe the Kremlin would be willing to modify some other Russian demands in order to get them.

Marion Co. Man Fined By Mayor in Kenton

KENTON, March 26—R. D. Martin of route 7, Marion, met double trouble in Kenton Saturday night.

First his motorcycle caught fire and burned and then he was taken into custody by Kenton police on charges of operating a motorcycle without a license. The latter cost him $50 and 30 days in the county jail when he was arraigned before Mayor Leroy Hoppe.

GRAND JURY TO HEAR BOAT BLAST EVIDENCE

By The Associated Press

SANTA ANA, Calif., March 26—The Orange county grand jury convened today to hear Sheriff James Musick's request for a murder indictment against George Gollum, 21, and his fiancee, Louise Overell, 17.

Gollum and Miss Overell have been charged with murder of the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Overell, aboard a dynamite-blasted yacht March 15.

A grand jury indictment would obviate presenting evidence at a preliminary hearing on the formal charges.

This evidence, sheriff's investigators said, included a scientific analysis of coagulated blood which they claim indicates the Overells died an hour or two before the boat sank in Newport harbor.

Sheriff Musick has said that he believes the parents were killed with a hammer and that the dynamite explosion was set to destroy evidence of the crime. The youths steadfastly maintain innocence.

The girl had been living away from her parents' home since last September, when she enrolled at the University of Southern California. She has been named as sole heir of a fortune estimated at $600,000. Gollum is a premedical student at Los Angeles City college.

Unique Celebration To Honor Cy Young on 80th Anniversary Saturday

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor

NEWCOMERSTOWN, O., March 26 — Fifty-seven years ago a raw-boned, husky farm lad with an arm like a windmill trudged out of these Tuscarawas county hills and on to baseball immortality.

He was Denton True (Cy) Young, who will be 80 years old Saturday, and who that day will be guest of honor at the most unusual banquet-celebration ever offered for a Buckeye sports celebrity.

They have his name wrong on the Hall of Fame scroll, where he is listed as Denton Tecumseh Young, but that little mistake can not dim the fact that he wound up his minor league career at nearby Canton with a no-hit no-run perfect game, and then added three more no-hitters in his 22-year major league career.

The records show that old Cy won 511 games and lost 315 in 11 years in the American league and 11 in the National—and that he never received more than $2,500 for a year's work. He won more than 30 victories five different seasons, and struck out 2,232 batters, records which have never been approached.

He pitched in the first World Series, winning two and losing one, and at the age of 45, when he lost a 1-0 game to Grover Cleveland Alexander, he hung up his spikes and became the first pitcher to enter the Hall of Fame.

Saturday some 800 of his neighbors will pay homage to this county's most distinguished citizen. No spot in town can take care of the crowd at a single banquet, so the meal will be served at five different places and then the throng will merge at the high school auditorium for the ceremonies.

Cy Young To Attend Local Baseball Dinner

Denton True (Cy) Young, immortal pitcher whose eighteth birthday will be celebrated at Newcomerstown Saturday, will attend the second annual baseball banquet in Marion April 24.

He will be the guest of Emmett (Turk) Reilley, former Marion diamond star, now connected with a sporting goods firm.

Denton True (Cy) Young, most durable hurler in baseball history, pictured at the peak of his career and as he looks today. Young's 80th birthday will be celebrated at Newcomerstown, O.

Waite Hoyt, one-time Yankee ace, will be the principal speaker but Herb Pennock and Sad Sam Jones, both of whom spent 22 years in the majors, will be there too, with plenty to say, as will Gov. Thomas J. Herbert and Bill Veeck, sport-minded president of the Cleveland Indians.

But the home folks will be waiting through all those talks for old Cy to get to his feet and drawl his way through some anecdotes of the olden, golden days.

Maybe Cy will tell how he raised the steer which provided the beef for his own banquet; of how, when the Canton team folded back there in 1899, he was traded to Cleveland for a suit of clothes which his manager needed after the disastrous season, of how he had pitched 26 full games and finished 10 others before the Tri-State league quit on July 4, and now in his Cleveland debut he beat Chicago to three hits and ice, 8 to 1, of how he pitched and won a double header from Philadelphia on the season's last day to bring his Cleveland record to 10 wins and nine losses, and how he stayed over the .500 mark for 15 straight years.

Will Recall Perfect Game

He'll certainly recall his 1897 no-hitter for Cleveland against Cincinnati; the 1904 perfect game against Rube Waddell and the Philadelphia Athletics while he was with Boston, and the 1908 no-hit effort against New York. He may even tell of the 23 hitless innings he wrapped around the 1904 perfect game, the longest hitless streak in history.

The story he won't tell, because all the rest folks know it, is how he came home from his first big league season with $1,400 in his pocket and married the girl next door; of how they traveled hand in hand over the baseball circuit until he quit in 1911, and then returned to the old home; and of how Mrs. Young died in 1934 and how he "didn't care to live in the old house after that," sold it, and moved in with neighbors high on a hilltop from where he could look down on the cemetery graveyard where his wife is buried.

Young points out that present-day pitchers are handicapped by the livelier ball and small parks. He says:

"When I was pitching it took a powerful wallop to knock the ball against or over the fence."

Considering his advanced years the old boy is still hale and hearty.

And, incidentally, March 29 is the birthday of another great thoroughbread in sports — Man O'War.

Cincinnati, Toledo Walk Off With Most Golden Glove Titles

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 26—Clearing battle-smoke from Ohio's annual A.A.U. boxing tournament today revealed Cincinnati and Toledo clamming five-eights of the Buckeye representation in next month's national tournament at Boston.

Cincinnati, with Boo Holliday, Bud Smith, and Sylvester Salter taking the flyweight, feather weight, and heavyweight crowns, respectively, was one up on Toledo, represented by lightweight titleholder Percy King and welterweight Dick McConnell.

Remaining state crown—distributed as the amateurs put on a fast 22-bout program for 2,310 fans last night—went to bantamweight Sammy Patton of Columbus, middleweight Joe Harmon of Springfield, and Dover's sparkling light-heavy, Wally Unsold.

Three final battles ended abruptly but the best crowd-pleaser was Unsold's slugging victory over the defending light-heavyweight champ, Johnny Tucker of Columbus.

Earl Parker, Dayton lightweight, who stopped Springfield's Jimmy Oliver in the first round of their semifinal scrap was flattened by King in the payoff encounter.

Other finalists who copped by knockouts were Patton, who dropped Springfield's Johnny Roberts in the opening canto, and Holliday who got a two-round TKO over Columbus' Tom English.

Results last night included:

Finals—Bantamweight division, Sammy Patton, Columbus, kayoed Johnny Roberts, Springfield, first round; middleweight Joe Jarman, Springfield, outpointed Bill Horton, Dayton; light-heavyweight Wally Unsold, Dover, outpointed Jonn Tucker, Columbus; heavyweight; Sylvester Salter, Cincinnati, outpointed John Clever, Springfield.

Semifinals—Lightweight: Earl Parker, Dayton, kayoed James Oliver, Springfield, first round; Dick McConnell, Toledo, outpointed Bob Ragland, Springfield; middleweight: Joe Jarman, Springfield, outpointed Elige Cummerlander, Columbus; Bill Horton, Dayton, outpointed Herb McDonald, Dover; light-heavyweight, Wally Unsold, Dover, kayoed Buddy Clark, Columbus, second round; heavyweight: John Clever, Springfield, won by default from Ward Watkins, Delaware.

SALIVA TEST AT HARNESS RACES MAY BE ORDERED

Marion Track Included in Proposal; Morrow Fair Date Set.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 26 — Saliva tests for major harness race track winners were a possibility following the regular monthly meeting of the Ohio Racing commission yesterday.

Mandatory at running tracks for several, the tests would determine whether horses won under the influence of stimulants.

One commission spokesman said that Fort Miami raceway at Toledo, and possibly Marion, Wapakoneta, and Troy tracks would be considered major. County fair tracks probably would be considered minor, he said.

The following fair dates were approved: Trumubll county (Warren), Aug. 6 through 8, Franklin (Hilliards), Aug 13 through 16; Morrow (Mt. Gilead) Aug. 14 through 16.

The commission will next meet April 22.

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, March 26 — The Paterson (N. J.) Evening News is starting a campaign to have Commissioner Happy Chandler appoint Babe Ruth as "American baseball's ambassador of good will." Happy gave a lot of folks the impression that his job was just that—and maybe it is. . . . Bill Daley, just signed by the Chicago Rockets, collected a $4,000 bonus and $8,500 salary from Brooklyn last season.

Bedtime Story

Wally Butts, Georgia's celebrated cryin' coach, and Notre Dame's Frank Leahy, who doesn't do so badly in that department, were having a tearful get-together at Wally's house recently . . . "We haven't a thing, Frank," Butts moaned. "To take the place of Trippi we have a couple of spindly-legged freshmen. To take the place of Bulldog Williams we have a 170-pound tackle. . . . I've never seen such sorry material." At this point Wally's nine-year-old daughter, Nancy, broke in apologetically: "Don't pay any attention to daddy. He was saying the same thing at this time last year and his team didn't lose a single game" . . . Nancy was promptly packed off to bed.

New reason: The Pitt-Allegheny baseball game, scheduled for Pitt stadium May 13, has been cancelled because of opera. Seems the singers are taking over the stadium that week. Maybe Larry MacPhail can use that one along with his musical radio program. . . . Rocky Graziano claims he has turned down theater, radio and fight offers worth $780,000 to stay in the clear until his suspension in New York is lifted. . . .

SMITTY'S GIRLS TAKE Y CAGE TOURNAMENT

Whip Cooler 50-26 To Win Championship.

Smitty's Girls took the tournament championship of the Y.M.C.A. girls league last night posting an impressive 50 to 26 win over the Y-Girls.

This was their third start in the double elimination tournament which they swept without a loss. Their final record for the year is 10 wins against one loss. The defeat to Universal Cooler came when they were unable to floor a team for a league game.

Another game was to have been played last night between Ward Stilson and Harpster Ex-Hi but because of driving conditions the Harpster team was unable to be on hand. The game has been postponed until next Tuesday night and the winner will play the Y-Girls for second place in the tournament.

After last night's affair Harold Smith, sponsor of the champs received a 17-inch trophy in behalf of the team.

Gold medals were awarded to team members. Players with this outfit are Mabel Wright, Joan Grull, Helen Mochel, Katherine Reid, Meriam Hart, Sally Murray, Alice Barrett, Joan Hogan, Rachel Plumel, and Twila Delaney.

LEO TO LOOK AT ROBINSON

By The Associated Press

HAVANA, March 26—Brooklyn Dodger Manager Leo Durocher gets his first opportunity to inspect the Negro minor league star, Jackie Robinson, in direct competition with Ed Stevens and Howie Schultz at first base when the Brooks and their Montreal farmhands renew their series here tonight.

RED SOX CONFIDENT THEY'LL WIN FLAG

World Series Disappointments Gone with Winter Snow.

By The Associated Press

SARASOTA, Fla., March 26—As they swing into the final phase of their spring training, the Boston Red Sox, individually and collectively, appear more firmly convinced than ever that they can run away with the American league race again.

Gone with the winters snows are the hurts and disappointments Joe Cronin's boys received in the last World Series, when they entered as overrated favorites and finished as a roundly-beaten club after Harry Brecheen of the Cardinals had dazzled them with his pitching and Enos Slaughter had mesmerized them on the base paths.

The Sox, from Ted Williams on down, realize now that they were not the all-time wonders they appeared to be in knocking the daylights out of their own league.

A poll of the teams stars discloses that they feel they are about 30 per cent stronger than they were this time a year ago, mostly because of greater depth in their pitching.

Now the Hose apparently have three additional starters—rookies who are more or less ready to step in there and either take their turn with, or efficiently relieve, the big men of the staff—Tex Hughson, Bob Ferris, Mickey Harris and Joe Dobson.

The trio, all graduates of the Sox farm system, are Mel Parnell, left-hander up from Scranton of the Eastern league; Tommy Fine, a right-hander also from Scranton, and Harry (Fritz) Dorish, from Louisville. All three look like finished products.

Reds' Riddle Shows Old Form; Rookie Grabs Berth with Tribe

Pitches 3 Scoreless Frames as Injury Is Apparently Healed.

By The Associated Press

TAMPA, Fla., March 26—Elmer Riddle's hopes for making a successful comeback with the Cincinnati Reds were much brighter today.

Throwing cautiously, the stocky right-hander pitched three scoreless innings yesterday as his contribution to the Reds 9-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phils.

"My arm felt loose and I was able to throw hard for the first time since I injured it back in 1944," said Riddle, the last Cincinnati pitcher to win more than 20 games in a season (21-11 in 1943). He entered voluntary retirement in 1945 after a shoulder operation.

He gave up but one single, retired one Phil on strikes and issued three passes as he gave his arm the first real test since the surgical operation.

Johnny Neun, Cincinnati manager, was impressed. He said:

"I'm going to give him another chance the latter part of the week."

Augie Galan led the Reds attack with two singles in three trips, while the biggest blow was Grady Hatton's long home run in the second inning.

Kuzava, Lefty with Control, Seems Certain To Be Starter.

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, March 26—Rookie Bob Kuzava, a southpaw with control, apparently has clinched a starting berth with the Cleveland Indians.

The 24-year-old native of Wilandotte, Mich., has paced all the Cleveland hurlers in effectiveness during the exhibition season. Yesterday he became the first to pitch eight innings as he limited Hollywood's Pacific Coast leaguers to a pair of singles as the Tribe won 5 to 0.

Boo retired 10 in a row before Tony Lupien, formerly of the Boston Red Sox, made the first out in the fourth. A double play erased Tony and the next man to reach base was Frank Kellener in the eighth. He didn't advance either.

Kuzava did not issue a pass and fanned four. Red Embree took over in the ninth and allowed two more hits.

The Indians pounded Ronnie Smith for 11 of their 12 hits during his five innings, including a two-run homer by Pat Seerey.

Joe Krakauskas, veteran southpaw sold by Cleveland to Hollywood during the winter, relieved Smith and faced only 14 of his former mates, giving an infield single and fanning four.

Farmers Feeding Hogs To Higher Weights

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 26—Reflecting favorable prices and a large consumer demand for pork farmers are feeding their butcher hogs to heavier weights than the wartime average before marketing them

A check of hog receipts at seven principal corn belt markets snow that hogs sold on these markets have been averaging nearly 10 pounds more per animal for several months than the average weight for the same months in the 1941-45 period

Agriculture department officials said the current shortage of pork is more reflection of a short supply of hogs rather than weights at which the animals are being marketed.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

FOR the fraction of a second, while I tried to get my thoughts into words which would have some meaning to Dr. Twitchell when I should answer his question, my mind was registering renewed respect for the old physician's astuteness

He had seen Mary for only a brief period, he did not know her at all well, and yet he had seen, what I, with my intimate knowledge of her, had detected that she was facing some trouble of which we, who loved her, had no knowledge — trouble which had more than a touch of fear in it.

A Flash of Caution

My eyes met Dicky's, and I saw a flash of caution in them. I knew then that he had fathomed the fantastic guess of mine which I had not dared name, even to myself, and that he was warning me to say no word of it to Dr Twitchell—yet

But I already had warned myself not to voice that wild conjecture If it were true, it was something which Mary must reveal of her own volition, in her own time It must not be told, even confidentially, to her physician, without deliberation and an earnest attempt to gain her confidence and her permission to reveal it.

But there were things I could tell Dr. Twitchell, and I said them promptly.

"There is something troubling her," I said, "but she is keeping part of it secret, I am sure, and I cannot guess what it is But that it has something to do with her role in the new play I am waiting for her, I am very sure, and it links back to something the sanitarium authorities told her father-in-law over the telephone this morning."

Keen Scrutiny

"H—m-m," Dr. Twitchell said, linking his hands together over what Dicky calls his "Santa Claus likeness." Then he sent me another look of keen scrutiny.

"Please tell me everything you know about this," he said, and I gladly shunted my fantastic conjecture back to its cell What the elderly physician wanted was facts, not guesses, and I marshalled what I had into coherent phrasing.

First I told him of Mary's flinging the book of plays at the wall, as it had been told to Philip Veritzen by the sanitarium authorities; of their taking all reading away from her because it seemed to excite her, and of her alarming moodiness afterward, with the staring at the wall which the sanitarium physicians had described

"I must tell you, Dr. Twitchell," Dicky interrupted,. with a "Sorry old dear," tossed in my direction, "that I wouldn't put it past my gifted, lovable hellion of a niece, to stage those moody fits in the hope of getting her reading matter back My wife, I am sure, agrees with me, only I was afraid she wouldn't be mean enough to say so Take it from there, Madge"

Startling Comment

But I had to wait for Dr Twitchell, who was replying to Dicky's startling comment

"From my observation of young Mrs Veritzen, I am inclined to believe you," the physician said "Now, Mrs. Graham, if you will be good enough to go on"

"I haven't very much more to tell you," I said, "except that our niece is displaying a feverish anxiety about the play I am writing for her. She wants to read what has been done on it, she insists upon studying the lines; she is strangely anxious to have me finish it

"I am sure that she intends to ask you tonight if she may not read the play before she shall get to sleep," I finished, and the old physician smiled

May Read the Play

"I don't think I shall thwart her," he said "I don't want to excite her in any way I shall tell her she may read the play until she goes to sleep If I am not mistaken, she will not read more than five minutes before she drops the manuscript and drifts off into slumber'

"You are counting on the efficacy of the pellet you are going to give her," Dicky suggested.

Dr Twitchell nodded.

"I have found them most effetive,' he said.

'I don't doubt it," Dicky said dryly 'But I also have found my niece most effective in action If you don't mind, Dr Twitchell, I would like to have my wife and myself both watching Mary when you give her that pellet Then we'll be sure that she doesn't palm it"

"Bless my soul!" Dr Twitchell exclaimed But he did not say anything more, for the bedroom door opened and Noel fairly stumbled into the room

"Mary! Quick!" he gasped.
